to this province, until the boundary is decided.

As the boundary has not been decided on—as it cannot be decided on except by the Prity Council—it is therefore apparent, on the authority of Mr. Mackannie, and that Mr. Moward Government have not the law at defance. That this has been done to save themselves from defast in the Legislavire, there is unfortunately little room for doubling. We excrangily hope that the people of Algona will reduce such that the people of Algona will reduce such that the people of Algona will reduce such unaccupulous politicians as they deserve by rejecting their nominee, Mr. Lyon.

The Globe says of the assassin who shot Januss Maroney in Toronto on Tuesday night: The aspectance and hearing of the prissure redicate that he is an old hand at rough well. His face is anything out. Boglish and wears a hard, set look peculiar to the "tough well. His face is anything out. Boglish and wears a hard, set look peculiar to the "tough". Desceiver, Royald has creption and liteness of a nodorious cracksman known in descrive circles all over the continent as Charlis Morgan, who reconsily figured in a dessily row in Detroit. When he saw the prisoner yeaterday morning he at once recognized in his appearance a remarkably similarity to Morgan. Additional investigation force out his identity to such a degree that the descrives have now little doubt that "Andrews" is no less a personage than the notorious Morgan. Only last summer he was shot in the leg in a bar-room brawl in one of the lowest dense of Detroit, from the effects of which he is still stightly lame. A peculiar shade over his right eye was caused by a blow received in a scrimmage for liberty a few years ago. The city distentives suppose that he had been one of the principal directors in the operations of the gang of barqiars who have been infeating the city of late.

I. O. O. F. THE GRAND LODGE SESSION

RECUTION OF OFFICIENT.

OTTAWA, AUG. 9.

The election of officers was called at 3 p. m., and resulted as follows:—Grand Master, W. MacDiarmid, of Lucan, by acclamation; Doputy Grand Master, A. L. Morden, Napanee, by acclamation; Grand Warden, Rev. N. H. Martin, Chatham, on the account ballst; Grand Scoretary, J. B. King, Toronto, by acclamation; Grand Treasurer, W. Badencoh, Toronto, by acclamation; Grand Representative, Dr. C. Campbell, London, on the first ballot.

A motion was adopted proxiding that the constitution of the Grand Lodge shall not be amended except on a two-thirds vote. St. Thomas was fixed upon as the seat of the next season of the Grand Lodge. The question of milesges and per dism has been one of more than ordinary interest this season, owing to the seat of Grand Lodge being in the extreme casterin part of the jurisdiction. The expenses of the season are nearly doubled, but it was decided by a large majority to pay the same milesges as hereifore, our cents per mile. The Grand Lodge was in sevent season to-night; may be a large majority to pay the same milesges as hereifore, our cents per mile. Heat Lightning.

Prof. Tyodall has made observations in Switzerland which show that the alloud flashes called "heat lightning" are not, as generally supposed, harmless, but indicate then-decators which may not be twenty miles away. Tyodall occupied a station upon the Bel Alip, which is connected by telegraph with Monte Generoes, diffy miles away. "Frequently," says Prof. Tyodall in Nature, "who the westerlouchtes (reported to be lightning without thunder) seen from the Bel Alip, was in full play, I have telegraphed to to the proprietor of the Monte Generoes belst and learned in every leatance that our silent lightning co-catted in time with a thunderstorm more or less "territo" in Upper Issay. Persons observing these situal tables to be repeated with loreasting strictions may take them as evidence of the control of the
